YarnMaker

Handspinning from fibre to textile

Complete this form to book an entry in the directory pages of YarnMaker magazine.

The aim of publishing this information is to help people learn who-does-what and where-to-find-them. Another section will list Guilds and spinning groups, and the directory will be included in each bi-monthly edition of the magazine.

Business name:

Postal address, inc. postcode:

Do you have a shop at this address? yes / no If not, can people visit by appointment? yes / no

Phone number(s): Fax number:

Website address: email

Areas of business (please tick):

Spinning wheels..... spindles..... fleece..... fibre..... dyed fibres..... combs..... handcarders..... drum carders.....

secondhand equipment..... other spinning equipment.....

All of the above.....

Natural dyes..... synthetic dyes..... equipment for dyeing ..... All of the these .....

basic spinning tuition..... advanced spinning tuition..... dyeing tuition..... weaving tuition.....

Handbuilt spinning wheels.....

talks and demonstrations..... new books..... secondhand books.....

knitting & crochet supplies..... weaving supplies.....

handspun yarns..... spinning commissions undertaken.....

If you only supply fleece, please give details of your fleece:

Other:

Date this form completed:.....(You will be contacted after 12 months to ensure that the details are up to date, however, please notify us of any changes made.)

Please include my business in the YarnMaker directory pages, I enclose a cheque in payment of (please tick)

£12 for one edition..... or £50 for one year (6 editions).....

Please make cheques payable to "Dorothy Lumb Publishing". Card payments may be made over the phone.

signed..... date:.....

name and position (please print).....

Please post your completed form and cheque payment to:

Dorothy Lumb Publishing, Roundhill, Start Lane, Whaley Bridge, High Peak, SK23 7BP. Website: www.yarnmaker.co.uk
Telephone enquiries: 0845 313 8467(lo-call rate) or 01663 719497, email: editor@yarnmaker.co.uk